Sgarlato-Arthur and Bailey-Serson Also Victorious

The sun shined bright over Colonia Country Club for the duration of the first major of the year. The three-day long Two-Man Club Championship was marked by stiff competition and close finishes.

Larry Falcone and Ed Pitre downed Anthony LaFerrara and Ron Scimone to claim the Flight A Two-Man Club Championship. After a scare in the semi-finals from Thomas Tuminello and Thomas Tramutola, Falcone and Pitre rebounded to earn 15 points a piece in the Player of the Year race.

In Flight B, it was the Roberts' who prevailed. Robert Sgarlato and Robert Arthur finished atop the field of 8 teams to start the 2007 season with a bang.

"We played just well enough to win. It was a great competition," said Arthur after the win.

Flight C saw Rich Bailey and Paul Serson capture the hardware. Each man attributed the win to the other, but it took a team effort to take care of Mark Matzkin and William Kaczynski in the finals.

All runners-up earned 10 points in the Player of the Year standings. Each semi-finalist came away with 5 points.

Congratulations to all the winners, and thanks to all who came out.

Opening Day 2007!

By Paul Serson

As the morning dew was burning off the 18th fairway, Irwin Josephs, one of the clubs oldest active members, teed up his ball and smacked it down the 18th fairway to officially start the 109th golfing season at Colonia Country Club.

The tournament started with the Colonia family sitting down for a hearty buffet breakfast in the main dining room.

Following breakfast it was off the links, where dozens of foursomes filled with family and friends took the tee for a 9:00am shotgun start.

The course was in perfect condition with the lush fairways, the ever-thick rough, and the immaculate greens.

Within the days play there was a hit or miss contest and closest to the pin, which awarded beautiful Colonia Country Club golf bags.

Irwin Josephs has the honor of sending Colonia Country Club into its 109th season with a tee shot on 18.

Twilight Golf and Happy Hour

Nardones, Sersons Come Out On Top

May 4th marked the start of the Twilight golfing season as Rich Nardone, Pat Nardone, Sue Serson, and Chris Serson came in low.

Husbands and wives teamed up to play 9 holes before heading back to the clubhouse for Happy Hour where they enjoyed food, drinks, and trash talking.

If you missed out on this event, don't worry because there will be four more by summer's end.

The next Twilight is scheduled for June 15th.

Lobster Night!

Friends and family enjoyed the delicious food as well as music.

The ladies dragged their husbands to the dance floor, where the camera caught their every step.

Lobster Night remains one of the most popular events at Colonia Country Club.

Following the Valentines Day sell-out, Lobster Night also saw the Dining Room filled to capacity.

A great time was had by all who attended

MOTHERS DAY AT COLONIA COUNTRY CLUB

Mother's Day was truly a family affair at Colonia Country Club. Fathers, sons, daughters, and especially mothers enjoyed the steak, seafood, and sweets at the special holiday dinner.

The main dining room was once again packed to capacity as members enjoyed the company of both friends and family. Thanks to all the staff of Colonia CC, as well as Chef Don, Peter, and Ben for making Mother's Day possible. All of your excellent service made the event a great success.

HELLO, COLONIA!

Helloooo Colonia Country Club. My name is Adam Young. Some of you may already know me from my long tenure here as a caddy (one summer), but for those of you who don't, allow me to introduce myself.

I am 20 years old and have just completed my sophomore year at Ithaca College. I am a Sport Media major with a minor in Writing.

I was lucky enough to be paired with former president John Petillo for the caddy tournament last summer, and after maxing the 6th hole to start, Mr. Petillo wouldn't say a word to me. Finally, after dropping my ball within 9 feet on the 13th, he introduced himself.

We had much time to talk during the final 5 holes, as together we searched deep into the woods for his errant shots. It was at this time that I mentioned my area of study. After speaking with then-current editor Bill Clark, I was asked if I would like to help out.

While I was initially hesitant, Mr. Clark, along with Glenn Slavin, Frank Ingram, and John Petillo winned and dined me until I agreed.

All jokes aside, I am very excited to be contributing to the Colonia Times. I am grateful for the opportunity that has been given to me by the fine members of this club. I'm looking forward to meeting each and every one of you, and if you play your cards right, you just may get an article written about you.

Until next time, this is Adam Young.
