

TO: ALL ACTIVE MEMBERS OF COLONIA COUNTRY CLUB

FROM: MIKE BOCCIERI

DATE: MARCH 28, 2007

Dear Fellow Members,

The 2007 golf season is here! Shortly, everyone will be receiving in their lockers, by email, and with their next regular mailing, a copy of this year's Tournament Schedule. My committee has tried to make this season's events as much fun as possible, with keeping the traditions of our Majors intact.

The primary goal of the committee is to make our events pleasurable for ALL members. We need participation from everyone, both new and old, to make these events successful. Chris Mazzuchetti and his Staff, are ready to make sure everyone is included who wants to enter, whether signing up alone or with friends. Please talk with them if you're interested and have any questions.

This season, we have restructured the Player of the Year competition. Points will be awarded for all our traditional Majors, with weighting to the individual events slightly higher than the team events. We have added lesser points for the Secondary Holiday tournaments, in hope of added participation and intrigue for the participants.

We will also need your support by participating in as many Guest events as possible. We will kick-off with the popular "Texas Hold'em Poker" night in May. Our goal is to provide a day of golf and an evening of fun you can be proud to bring your guest to enjoy. In June, we will have our Annual Invitational, which we hope to make better than ever. There will be Guest Day's also planned for late June and early August with special themes for both. Plan to participate in as many as possible.

A late planning idea is to have a season long bracket tournament, based on the NCAA format. Individuals will play their matches within a scheduled period of time, and make their way into the "Final Four". Prizes will be awarded to all that get to that point, with a grand prize for the winner. We hope to complete the planning by late April, and start the matches by the middle of May.

As the season unfolds, please let me know what we can improve upon, and also any positive comments when we do something right! The amount they pay this committee is not enough to sustain all the hard work!

WISHING EVERYONE A FUN AND REWARDING SEASON!
